U. S. WINS IN LEAGUE SINN FEIN DROP DE VALERA VICE-PRINCIPAL FERGUSON TO HEAD NEW NIGHT SCHOOL

Leaders of Assembly of League of Nations Decide Organization Must Not Interfere in Controversy Between American Government and Allies

By NEWTON C. PARKE
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

GENEVA, Sept. 14.—Leaders of the assembly of the League of Nations decided today that the League shall not intervene in the controversy between the Allies and the United States over mandates while the present negotiations between the two parties to the dispute are in progress.

The United States will have at least one judge on the bench of the International Court of Justice and Arbitration. He is John Bassett Moore of New York, an authority on international law and consultant of the American State Department.

Arthur Griffith, Founder of Organization, Will Head Irish Delegation at Inverness Peace Conference With British Premier—Selection Is Surprise

DUBLIN, Sept. 14.—Eamonn de Valera will not be a member of the Irish delegation to the peace conference at Inverness, it was announced officially today.

Arthur Griffith, founder of Sinn Fein, will head the new delegation that will discuss terms with Premier Lloyd George.

Dail Eireann met here to discuss the latest peace developments and to choose the personnel of the Sinn Fein peace delegation.

After the session a statement was given out saying that the Sinn Fein parliamentarians had approved the following delegation:

Arthur Griffith, chairman; Michael Collins, commander-in-chief of the Irish Republican army, Robert C. Barton, E. Dugan and Gavan Duffy.

The Sinn Feiners are proceeding upon the theory that the Irish peace conference will be held as proposed, although it may be delayed somewhat in getting under way.

The fact that Griffith was chosen chairman of the Irish delegation instead of de Valera caused surprise in some quarters, despite reports current several days ago that this change might be made. Up to the present time de Valera has carried on for the Sinn Fein all the direct negotiations with Premier Lloyd George.

It was obvious that some sort of hitch had occurred in the negotiations when Dail Eireann assembled, but it was impossible to say how serious it was. There was a tense atmosphere when the parliamentarians met.

Dispatches from London received before the parliamentarians met indicated that Premier Lloyd George was taking a firm stand upon the condition that the Sinn Feiners must pledge allegiance to the king as a basis for the peace parley.

JAPAN PRECEDENTS MAY BE SMASHED BY ROYAL VISIT

Washington, D. C., Sept. 14.—When President Harding wishes to visit the theatre, as he does from time to time, he mentions the fact to the White House head usher a few hours in advance, and the head usher telephones the manager of the theatre to make sure the Presidential box is reserved. The secret service is also notified, in order that operatives may be stationed in various parts of the audience, a precaution never neglected since the fatal shooting of Abraham Lincoln in the old Ford Theatre here.

At first sight this seems a bit complicated, but in reality it is as simple, so far as the President himself is concerned, as when Bill Jones or John Doe go to the movies. There is no long-drawn-out discussion as to the propriety of the visit, or the effect it may have upon the country at large, and the President and Mrs. Harding have been known to decide upon a theatre party only a few hours in advance of the event.

In Japan matters are not so simple. The mere suggestion that the Japanese Crown Prince might entertain the Prince of Wales when he arrives in Japan next spring by taking him to the theatre has aroused a controversy which is spreading throughout the empire. For a member of the Imperial household to visit a theatre frequented by ordinary human beings is absolutely unprecedented, and a not inconsiderable portion of the more conservative Japanese are scandalized at the thought of such a thing, according to diplomatic reports received in Washington.

Liberals Favor Broken Barriers
Nevertheless, there is undoubtedly a large liberal element, including some powerful liberal leaders and a few of the more conservative, who are eager to see some of the old barriers between the Imperial household and the people broken down. Indeed, according to a statement attributed to an officer of the household, one of the motives for the European tour of the Crown Prince Hirohito was to enable him to observe the relations between the royalty of Europe and their subjects.

So far has the talk of entertainment of the Prince of Wales in Tokyo proceeded that theatrical managers in the Japanese capital are already vying with each other as to whether they will have the privilege of being the first to entertain any member of the Japanese Imperial family, and at the same time provide amusement for the future king of England.

The plan to make a visit to some Tokyo theatre a part of the Prince of Wales' entertainment was suggested partly because of the fact that the same sort of entertainment was provided for the Crown Prince of Japan in London. The influential newspaper Yomiuri, commenting on the decision of the department of the Imperial Household to give consideration to such a program, recalls the fact that several years ago, when the National Literary Society was founded in Tokyo, with Takejiro Tokonami, the home minister, at its head, it was planned to have some imperial person visit the theatre, but the widespread objections made the scheme impossible.

Precedent at Variance
Under the Japanese theory a theatre where the emperor visits would have to be regarded as an extension of the imperial household. Sanitary and police precautions must be taken on the responsibility of the authori-

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS BEGIN BIG DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

By EMIL E. FRAM

In the month of August, 1922, Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias will hold its convention in San Francisco. Delegates from every state of the Union as well as from Hawaii, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico and every province of Canada will attend this convention.

The Supreme Chancellor of the Order, F. La Due, is making a drive for a million members in the United States during his term of office and every subordinate lodge K. of P. is making an effort to go before this convention as the lodge having made the biggest percentage gain and therefore become the banner lodge of the order.

As such this lodge and the city in which it is located will be advertised in the Pythian Press, but no doubt the daily papers will also mention it in their report of the convention. The members of Glendale Lodge No. 331 are ambitious. Ambitious for the lodge and proud of our beautiful Glendale and will put Glendale first at the San Francisco convention.

On making a careful survey we find at a conservative figure that at least a thousand of our citizens have taken the obligation of the order of K. of P. and it is our endeavor to have them affiliate with the local lodge. Most of these Knights of Pythias hold their membership in lodges back east but have chosen Glendale above all other cities for their homes to live in, to educate their children in its schools, to worship in its churches, to take part in its civic life. Glendale with its pretty streets, beautiful homes, up-to-date stores and banks, elegant theatres, growing industries and its progressive citizens is surely a place to be proud to call home.

Glendale is known all over as the fastest growing city under 20,000 population in the country and after next August it will be known all over the United States, Canada, and our possessions in the islands as the home of the banner lodge of the Grand Pythian Order. "Glendale First" is our slogan.

On Tuesday, September 20, we will hold an entertainment to stimulate this move and expect every Pythian in Glendale to attend. Those not members of the order will receive invitations. A good program and refreshments will be furnished.

ties of the imperial household department.

In addition there is the all-important matter of precedent. No imperial personage ever before in the history of Japan visited a theatre publicly. Breaking this precedent is regarded as a most serious matter.

If the British heir should visit a theatre the Japanese Crown Prince would have to accompany his guest. Possibly the empress would also be a member of the party. Widely ramifying complications are expected as a result of this record-breaking innovation in the affairs of the imperial household.

When Prince Arthur of Connaught visited the Kabukize, 40,000 yen or more was spent in fitting up the theatre for his reception. If the British heir is to visit a Japanese theatre, the consensus of opinion points to the Imperial Theatre as the most likely to be selected. On account of the competition among theatrical managers for the honor, the authorities are keeping all their plans and preparations secret.

High School Board of Trustees Appoints Popular Teacher to Take Charge of New Departure in Education in This City—Registrations This Week

At yesterday's meeting of the High School Board of Trustees, A. L. Ferguson, who is a vice-principal of the day school, was made principal of the night school for which students are expected to enroll Thursday and Friday evenings of the present week. No forecast could be given the board of the number of classes to be formed until that registration has taken place. The general statement was made that they would be held two or three times a week with the possible exception of shop classes for which the enrollment may be so heavy as to necessitate classes five nights in the week.

Announcement was made that the Chamber of Commerce committee is now ready to confer with the board relative to a possible new site and new buildings for the high school. All admitted that some action must be taken in the near future because of the present congestion. The matter was tentatively discussed with a view to working out some plan or policy to be discussed with the chamber of commerce committee, but no action was taken.

Bids for the new piano which the board voted to purchase for the music department were opened and the house committee, which has the matter in charge, was instructed to investigate further and to purchase an instrument.

The crowded condition of classes and the problem of taking care of all the students at noon were discussed in a general way, but no action was taken.

The list of new text books was formally adopted in conformity with the school law.

Mrs. Hall, the school librarian, having asked to be released that she may go east to study music, applicants for the position came before the board but no appointment was made.

DESPITE CONGESTION, SCHOOL WORK BEGINS

Twenty-five additional registrations were received yesterday at Glendale High and more are coming in this morning, indicating that the total before the week ends will be considerably in excess of the first day's registration, which totalled 1010, or about 25 per cent greater than last year's opening.

Some of the class problems are working out differently from the expectations of Principal Moyse and his assistants. For example, the enrollment for Spanish is very heavy and new classes have had to be formed.

Classes are Expanded
The four classes which were carried last year in plain geometry have had to be expanded to six.

For B9 algebra, 215 students have enrolled, and 80 for A9 algebra, making 300 students for first year algebra independent of the third year classes in this study.

Freehand drawing classes have had to be divided into sections and extra classes organized in mechanical drawing.

Many History Classes
It has been necessary to provide 12 classes in United States History. So many wished to include this and economics and civics in their courses that history has been incorporated in both the eleventh and twelfth years. The organization of gymnasium classes has been another problem that has kept the four teachers very busy. It will be definitely worked out today by Miss Knight, Mr. Hayhurst and their assistants, Miss Shattuck and Mr. Butterfield.

Student body activities have not been neglected in the organization that has been in progress. A cabinet meeting was held yesterday, over which President Paul Hutchinson presided, at which plans for handling the student body tickets, which admit to games and all the regular activities, were discussed. Nothing was definitely decided, but it is understood that the policy which has governed heretofore of making a price below the figure charged for such tickets by the majority of high schools, will be continued.

Work Has Begun
Students were coming and going to classes in orderly fashion this morning, quite as though school had been in session three months instead of three days, and the administration office is well pleased with the rapidity with which adjustments have been made and the general shaking-down into accustomed grooves.

The grouping of students under roll room teachers to whom they report, has helped much, also the new registrar's room, where enrollment has been rapidly handled.

She promises some very interesting developments along this line.

The third Tuesday in the month has been set apart for programs to be furnished by the different sections of the club, and of these Mrs. Colin Cable, general curator, will have charge.

Once in three months there will be a fifth Tuesday, and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, one of the past presidents, has been asked to utilize that for a purely social afternoon to promote acquaintance among the members.

Besides these meetings for the entire club, special meetings will be held twice a month by the seven sections, devoted to the study of Shakespeare, music, literature, drama, arts and crafts, parliamentary law and legislation.

A busy year is therefore inevitable for members of this flourishing organization of nearly 500 members, which, in addition to the regular club activities, is laying out an extensive program to chase the nimble dollar into the club house fund.

LOS ANGELES MAN IS FOUND BADLY WOUNDED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Norman Hawley, aged about 24, and believed to be from Los Angeles, was in a dying condition today at the San Francisco General Hospital as a result of three bullet wounds, mysteriously sustained early today.

The man was found by a street car conductor near the Holy Cross Cemetery. One bullet passed through his head and two others pierced his body near the heart. He has been unconscious most of the time since his entrance to the hospital and has been too weak when conscious to speak. Constable S. A. Landini is investigating.

Three other convicts, two of them wounded, were captured.

"WILD PARTY" WAS STORK

(By International News Service)

When the policemen reached the Rich residence the "party" had arrived. The stork had brought it.

INDIANA MINERS MAKING TROUBLE

SOCIAL LIGHTS WILL SHINE AT COMING VALLEY FAIR

Society is beginning to lay its plans to attend the horse show which will be a nightly feature of the Los Angeles County Fair at San Fernando, September 19-24, for those who are not actually entering finely bred horses will at least participate in the fashion parade that will make its way round the six foot promenade between the arena and the boxes every night. Famous society women, who are likewise famous horse women, in many instances, will come here from San Francisco, Pasadena, Santa Barbara and all over the country for this event. And chief among the beauties who will occupy boxes, as well as among the exhibitors, will be some of Los Angeles' leading social lights. Mrs. J. M. Danziger will be there, as some of the Danziger beautiful thoroughbreds will be entered in the show. Mrs. Anita Baldwin, whose famous horses will be entered, will be among the local society women, while Miss Maud Banks, equally well known in Southern California country life, will be another prominent woman there. Mrs. Adelaide Gillis McCormick is another Los Angeles woman who will attend the horse show, while some of the brilliant social figures from other cities who will be here are Mrs. C. B. Anderson of Pleasanton, Mrs. William Roth of San Francisco, Mrs. Winslow Anderson of Santa Rosa, Mrs. Arthur P. Perkins, Pasadena. Already several parties of society folk are organized to attend the horse show for the entire week and suites of rooms are already engaged in local hotels and those of San Fernando to entertain these celebrated visitors.

BEBE DANIELS AT PALACE GRAND

Bebe Daniels starts the action in her latest picture, "The March Hare," by catching the overland limited out of Los Angeles several minutes after it has left. She overtakes the train at Pasadena, and from then on there is not an instant during which this vivid little heroine is not doing something equally daring and impossible, and coming through her adventures triumphantly.

Last Times Today

Those who have not seen the splendid Paramount-Ince picture, "Beau Revel," which is being shown at the Palace Grand theatre, may do so today when the last showing will take place. It is a dramatic picture well worth seeing. The leading roles are in the hands of Lewis Stone, Lloyd Hughes and Florence Vidor.

WHAT IS YOUR VERDICT?

THE MAN WHO WANTS TO WEAR a Manhattan Shirt, can do so at greater advantages today, than ever before, as it is taken for granted that he who is wearing a Manhattan is a man of consequence—he knows quality and appreciates service. The Best Known and Known as the Best Manhattan Shirts have come to be regarded as the last word in shirt-making for half a century ago they set a standard, so exacting and perfect that the ensuing years have only tended to strengthen the foundation upon which it was built. Just as you can determine the character of a man by the company he keeps, you can generally judge a store by the merchandise it sells! What, then, is your verdict of a shop such as ROBINSON'S at 116-A South Brand boulevard, that offers merchandise of the quality pressed by so famous a line as Manhattan Shirts? They sell them as well as every other high type article of Men's Wear! The prices on Manhattan Shirts at Robinson's Men's Shop will surely interest you—just think, only $2.50, $3.00, and $3.50! You know they have the most complete line of Wilson Bros. and Manhattan Shirts ever known in Glendale!

DELIGHTFULLY CHARMING MODES

THE VOGUE FOR BLACK was never before so pronounced as it has been this season! Mr. HATZ of 132 South Brand boulevard, is showing black Canton Crepe dresses in simple yet delightfully charming modes, severely plain except for a bow or a corsage of scarlet or king's blue, and these, he says, are particularly well liked by students of Fashion's trend! There are any number of other new fall dresses in their complete stock that have already won favor with women of discrimination who would be well dressed! And, not the least among these are the alluringly lovely bead and embroidery trimmed models of navy tulle and poiret will! The very gown for Milady is at Hatz's, whether it is for afternoon, evening or street wear—and their coats, well really, they must be seen to be appreciated, but suffice it to say, that any woman's heart would thrill to own one of these luxurious, fur trimmed garments. Hatz's, you know, is the shop for Correct Women's Wear, and there you will find the very best modes from New York and Paris!

Quills laid flat under or over the brim are used, and ribbon bows, wide at the side, are noted.

TO INSTILL IN HIM

A SENSE OF THRIFT! HAVE YOU OPENED that savings account at the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF GLENDALE, for your son's college expenses, yet? Can't you appreciate how, if he is made to see that the money which he is able to save is simply being allowed to grow so that it will some day be of sufficient size to buy for him the thing which he most wants and needs—a college education, it is going to instill in him a sense of thrift? A sense, which, perhaps, you, yourself, lacked but have tried to cultivate? There are few boys who will really endeavor to save unless for something which they earnestly believe they want—and if you can make your son appreciate the advantages of a university degree, he will have something for which to plan and save during these years when it is necessary to form that habit! And, what sense of responsibility will he have in college, if he has no idea of the value of money, or what it cost to send him there? But, if now he is saving and planning, and watching his little account in the First National Bank, grow, he'll spend his money far more wisely during, not only his college career, but during his entire life!

JUST WAIT UNTIL

YOU'VE HEARD IT! "ALL BY MYSELF," quite the most fascinatingly plaintive melody I've heard, has just been released in a fox trot on a Brunswick record! You may hear it too, at the NEW ARTISTIC BRUNSWICK SHOPPE, at 126 South Brand boulevard—played by Bennie Krueger's famous orchestra! And, really it is, Bennie Krueger himself, for while it's playing you can just close your eyes and imagine he's there before you with his wonderful music makers, for Krueger puts his very heart and soul into his recordings. And, the other side—well, really, words fail me—"Saturday" is positively "the best ever" as a fox trot—and when played by Bennie Krueger's Orchestra it is a winner! You'll probably remember Krueger and his orchestra with a little thrill of pleasure when I tell you it was he who played "Ain't We Got Fun"—that biggest hit of the season, coupled with "Dangerous Blues"—another toe-tickling dance number! The supply is limited as "All By Myself" is just a special, released today—and as every one's anxious to get their copy first—you'd better call the Brunswick Shoppe and reserve yours, NOW!

The "fan dress" is a new version of the navy or black crepe gown featured, so named because of the irregular "fan" panels which are suspended at the sides from the hip line.

A group of silk dresses for afternoon wear follow straight lines, and trimmings are introduced in black and white and in braid, and buttons applied in military form.

HOUSE WARMING AT FORD AGENCY IS ANNOUNCED

To celebrate moving into this new building at 113-115 West Colorado boulevard, Jesse E. Smith, authorized Ford dealer of Glendale, announced that tomorrow night he will give a house warming party and dance in the new building and extends a cordial invitation to the people of Glendale to come in and be his guests at any time during the day or evening.

This will be an all day and evening affair and Mr. Smith says that there will be snappy music that will set the feet to tingling in anticipation of the dance, and last but by no means the least, there will be refreshments. The new plant of the local Ford dealer is three times as large as the old one, permitting the organization to better carry out its slogan "Jesse E. Smith Serves You Right."

One of the new features of the plant is the gasoline filling service station, at the southwest corner of the building. This service station opens on the traffic artery of Glendale, and Mr. Smith extends a personal invitation to all Ford owners to drop in at any time while passing through the city, and get acquainted. Tomorrow night, however, the invitation is extended to all residents of Glendale, whether they are Ford owners or not.

BAY CITY EMPLOYERS TO GIVE LEAVES FOR REUNION OF VETS

San Francisco veterans of the World War who have not seen the mystic letters "A. W. O. L." except in a comic paper, since 1919, may again have them marked opposite their names late this month.

Employers in the Bay City are granting their men regular army "leaves" from Friday noon to Monday noon, September 23rd to September 26th, at the formal request of Mayor James Rolph Jr. in order that they may attend the reunion of the Ninety-first division to be held in Los Angeles, September 24th and 25th. Mayors of other cities in the Ninth Corps Area, from which the division was recruited, are expected to follow the example of "Jim" Rolph, "Father of the Regiment" to the 363rd Infantry.

More than 500 men from the Bay City are expected to make the journey to Los Angeles, headed by Mayor Rolph, in the former transport Harvard. The Harvard has been substituted for the Yale as the contingent's transport, owing to a change in schedule.

"The annual reunion of the Ninety-first division is, in my opinion, one of the greatest events of the year," says Mayor Rolph's proclamation. "It brings together again the men who fought side by side in France. It revives old memories; it keeps alive that unquenchable spirit that typifies the West, the spirit that brought Victory to the allied armies—and it likewise presents the opportunity of doing homage to those brave lads who laid down their lives in France and in Belgium."

HELP WANTED TO ADVERTISE REUNION

With more than three thousand posters advertising the reunion of the Ninety-first division to be held in Los Angeles September 24th and 25th, scattered from Butte to San Diego, the committee in charge of the affair is ready to placard the windows of Los Angeles County. Posters in unlimited quantity are available and volunteers who will see that they are displayed in the city and in Pasadena, Long Beach, Venice and other nearby towns are wanted.

Men who can spare a few hours a day during the next week for the work are being asked to report to J. W. Stephen, 1010 Baker-Dewiler Bldg., at 9:00 a. m. or at noon.

WELCOMING SIGNS OF GLENDALE MUST BE RELOCATED

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce yesterday, it was decided that the location of the large signs, which are situated at the southern and northern entrance to Glendale, on the San Fernando road, must be changed.

Instead of permitting these signs to stay where they are the one at the southern entrance will be put on Brand boulevard near the San Fernando road and the one on the north will be put on Broadway, just east of the San Fernando road.

It is believed that with these signs in their new locations, visitors will be directed straight into the heart of our city, rather than down along the San Fernando road.

Jesse Smith reported having secured an interview with the management of the Los Angeles Times with regard to that paper giving Glendale more publicity. The management of the paper stated that it is not the intention of the paper to slight Glendale in the least, and that in the future an effort would be made to see that things run along a little better.

Secretary Rhoades reported that a check for $437.97 has been received from the company which put on the recent exposition in this city. This, it was stated, is one-third of the net proceeds of the exposition.

It was decided to ask the Glendale City Council to appropriate $200 per year for the next three years toward the $300,000 that is being raised annually for advertising in eastern magazines of Southern California.

SWIMMING POOL AT SUNSET COUNTRY CLUB IS COMPLETED

Word has been received by members of the Sunset Canyon Country Club who are residents of Glendale that the swimming pool that is included among the many improvements that are contemplated by the club, is completed and now in use. During the drive for members for this club in Glendale several months ago, there were quite a few local residents who joined. These members, as will all others, will be glad that the club's plunge is now in service.

Ambitious Program Is Adopted By W. C. T. U.

By ELLIS H. MARTIN,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Far from considering their work completed with the realization of the dream for which they worked a half century—nation-wide prohibition—the Women's Christian Temperance Union at its national convention recently ended here, embarked upon a program more ambitious and constructive than would have been considered possible by the early leaders of the movement.

So elaborate is the program that the national executive committee recommended as necessary to carry it out the following steps:

1. Membership campaign with the goal of a million members by 1924.
2. Completion of a Jubilee Fund of $1,000,000.
3. A nation-wide observance of November 11, Armistice Day, as a day of prayer for world disarmament, and January 16, National Prohibition Day, with great meetings for law enforcement.

Here is the program that the Union has set itself to carry out:

To Enforce Prohibition

1. To promote total abstinence by scientific investigation; instruction in schools and colleges; by pledge signing: (a) in the Sunday schools (b) young people's societies (c) the general public.
2. To secure the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment by the study of Federal and State enforcement laws by creating public sentiment in favor of prohibition and by the election of officials who will impartially administer the law.
3. To educate citizens, that in the exercise of their suffrage they may promote and secure righteous legislation.
4. To educate the foreign born, teaching English as the necessary avenue through which to promote American ideals and interpret prohibition.

5. To promote personal purity as the basis of a single standard of morals.
6. To physically develop, morally safeguard and spiritually train the child.
7. To stimulate Bible study, and through prayer and consecration deepen religious experience.
8. To secure the reading of the Bible in the public schools.
9. To carry the gospel message through meetings, music and flowers to the lonely, sick and neglected.
10. To bring before the missionary societies the salient facts of the relation of temperance and missions.
11. To cooperate with women in industry through education and in securing adequate legislation and to interest them in W. C. T. U.

Alcohol as Medicine

12. To train and establish young people in total abstinence and prohibition principles that they may know the reasons for the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment and be prepared to resist every attack upon it.
13. To show that alcoholic liquors are unnecessary for medicine and that patent medicines containing alcohol and habit-forming drugs are dangerous and harmful.
14. To continue our educational work against habit-forming drugs and tobacco.
15. To impress upon the minds and hearts of the people the tremendous opportunity which this country has of leading in the movement for the establishment of permanent world peace.
16. To unite the women of the country in this great organization of women which approaches reforms from the Christian viewpoint.
17. To promote a campaign of temperance education in other lands; to assist national societies federated in the World's Women's Christian Temperance Unions in their work of organization that the women may do their part in bringing prohibition to their own nation.

CLARK-LANE PARTY RETURNS

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Clark of 346 North Louise street, and Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Lane of 120 West Doran street, arrived home last week from a month's vacation in the high Sierras.

The party motored to Bishop and left their machine there, going to Andrew's Camp on Bishop Creek on horseback. They took five pack horses and five riding horses. They were accompanied on the trip by a helper, who took care of the stock. They rode from Bishop down into Kings River and over to Granite Pass and from there to Muir Pass, camping out all the way. Of course, all provisions had to be taken on the pack horses.

Most of the trip was made on the old John Muir trail. The men brought down three deer and they had all the fish and other game that they could eat. The trip took them through the most rugged part of the high Sierras and covered about 150 miles, all on horseback.

"I have been over the Alps in Switzerland," said Dr. Lane, "but I have never seen anything to compare with the scenery in the high Sierras. It surpasses the Alps by far."

On the return trip they came out at Independence, where their machine was waiting.

MILLIONS SPENT BY AGED, HE DREAMED OF LOVE; COURT STOPS CHECKS

(By International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Rockefeller Foundation spent over $7,000,000 on public health measures in 1920, its annual report, published here today, shows.

The Foundation's chief work was in preventative medicine and in world-wide fights against malaria, yellow fever and the hookworm.

Following is a summary, compiled by George E. Vincent, president of the Foundation, of the work done during the year:

Aided six medical schools in Canada. Gave a large sum to a medical training center in London. Appropriated a million francs for the Queen Elizabeth Foundation for Medical Research in Belgium. Agreed to contribute toward the complete rebuilding of the medical school of the University of Brussels. Provided the American and English medical journals or laboratory supplies for eleven medical schools and medical libraries in five European countries.

Continued to construct and to maintain in Peking, China, a modern medical school with a pre-medical department. Aided 31 hospitals in China to increase their efficiency in the care of patients and in the further training of doctors and nurses. Supported the School of Hygiene and Public Health of the John Hopkins University. Contributed to the teaching of hygiene in the medical school at Sao Paulo, Brazil. Provided fellowships in public health and medical education for 99 individuals who represented 13 different countries. Brought to the United States commissions of medical teachers and hygienists from England, Belgium and Czechoslovakia.

Continued to support a campaign against yellow fever in South and Central America and in West Africa. Aided Government agencies in the control of malaria in ten States of the South. Prosecuted hookworm work in nine Southern States and in 13 foreign countries. Helped to expand anti-hookworm campaigns into more general health organizations in countries, States and nations.

Brought a war-time anti-tuberculosis work in France to the point where it could soon be left entirely in French hands. Assisted the Government of Czechoslovakia to reorganize its public health laboratory system. Rendered various services in organizing committees to study the training of nurses and of hospital superintendents. Lent experts for conference and counsel, sent officers abroad to study conditions. Brought to a close its participation in war-time emergency relief by giving a million dol-

(By International News Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—He was eighty-four, but not too old to write love letters. Now he has a conservator, by court appointment, to see that he doesn't employ checks on his $50,000 to "follow up" the amorous notes.

"Scraps of paper," pieced together, told of the affection of Parker Weinman, who is past the four-score mark, for Mrs. Lillian Beardsley, of Evanston, Ill., who is said to be about half his age.

"My dearest Lilly," one of the missives began. "Dearest to me than all humanity above earth."

The word "love," distinguishable in the mutterings of the aged Lothario, aroused the suspicions of his daughter, Mrs. John Behee. Then, in his room, she found the "scraps of paper."

Mrs. Behee, with another daughter, Mrs. Jesse W. Barker, then began to get busy, and the court action resulted. Mr. Weinman is mentally incompetent, the daughters said in court and said that he had been "victimized" by Mrs. Beardsley.

According to their story, the aged man drew $5,000 out of the bank and gave it to Mrs. Beardsley on condition that she provide a home, food, and pocket money for him the rest of his life. It was also discovered that he had deeded property to her.

SAN FERNANDO FAIR EXHIBITS

Miss Eva Daniels, Glendale chairman of the needlework department of the San Fernando Fair, requests all those who wish to send their exhibits to her to do so either Thursday (tomorrow), or Friday, before 4 p. m. Miss Daniels wishes to catalogue the exhibits Saturday, as the Fair opens on Monday next. Exhibitors are requested to mark all exhibits plainly with their name and address when they are sent to Miss Daniels. Those who deliver their own to the Fair grounds are requested to do so on next Sunday.

These things were done in part by the Foundation, but chiefly through its departmental agencies—the International Health Board, the China Medical Board and the Division of Medical Education.

Great progress is reported in the campaigns against disease, especially in malaria and hookworm districts.

High tribute is paid to the work of the late General Gorgas, who died in the service of the Foundation, while on a mission to the west coast of Africa to study yellow fever.

The Foundation announces that it will in 1921 continue its previous policies.

VISIT THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY FAIR

Glendalians will do well to visit the San Fernando Valley Fair if for no other reason than to have a memory of what a county fair is like, a memory of splendid herds of finely bred animals which all too soon will cease to exist in this part of California if the present rate of progress is maintained.

Already bold forecasters are predicting that inside of ten years all of Los Angeles county will be Los Angeles city, perhaps under a borough system of government like London, and with all the territory cut up into lots or small acreage, where the breeding of anything larger than kittens, rabbits and puppies will be taboo.

The automobile has so far superseded the horse for the uses of business and pleasure, even on the farms, that the day is not far distant when children will be taken to the museums to see mounted specimens, that they may know what the four-footed servants of their ancestors looked like.

Cattle and goats will probably be with us for milk, but they will chew the cud of hayfields far away and will have no acquaintance with such pastures as their predecessors knew and shared with the sheep on a thousand hills that have also given place to palatial residences and highly developed estates.

Old California is almost gone, and the beasts that were the companions of man in the early days are almost gone, too.

62 PER CENT INCREASE IN SCHOOL STUDENTS

Desperate Condition of City for Housing of Classes Will Be Considered by School Board—Portable Bungalows Seem Best Means of Temporary Relief

An increase of 62 per cent in two years is shown by registrations in Glendale city schools in September, 1919, and now, says Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools. In that interval one old school house has been rebuilt but with no additional class rooms, and four rooms have been added to intermediate, but the actual gain in pupils represented by that 62 per cent is 1078. Anybody acquainted with school matters knows that four rooms are not sufficient to accommodate that number of pupils, since it would mean about 270 to a room. It is easy to understand, therefore, the makeshifts to which the school authorities have been forced to resort in the way of converting store rooms and even sheds into class rooms, utilizing auditoriums, doubling up in all kinds of ways, and it is not hard to visualize the problem which is confronting the Board of Education right now and which they will be called upon to solve temporarily at the meeting Thursday night.

Intermediate has enrolled 111 more students than last year, and, in spite of the four rooms added there during the past twelve months, will be compelled to use the library, the auditorium and the men's rest room for classes. At Columbus avenue 425, the congestion is said to be desperate, with an average of 60 pupils to a room. Pacific, which has an enrollment of 293, is badly crowded, and so are some of the grades at Cerritos.

At the last joint meeting of the Advisory Committee and the Board of Education, the purchase of portable bungalows for school purposes was suggested. Anticipating the need, the Board instructed Mr. White to advertise for bids. He did so, and states that the lowest bid received for one-room bungalow school rooms was approximately $1200.

He figures that at least three will be needed and these, with their furnishings, would cost in the neighborhood of $5000. He admits they would always be a valuable asset because of their transferability and because they could, in another year, be utilized for kindergarten rooms, for sewing quarters or other special uses that are always arising.

Another advantage mentioned by Mr. White would be their immediate availability, as the companies offering them guarantee delivery inside of two weeks after the order is placed.

Mr. White was naturally reluctant to forecast the action of the Board at its coming meeting, but in view of the situation at Columbus Avenue School and the pressure elsewhere, and the self-evident fact that buildings to be provided by the program for 1921-1922 will not be ready for use before spring, it seems reasonably certain that the order for the portable bungalows will be placed.

Three new teachers have been added this week to the staff previously engaged, viz., Miss Gertrude Grider, who will teach Spanish and other subjects at Intermediate; Charles Merrill, who will be a teacher of the sixth grade and assist with departmental work in the seventh and eighth grades, and Miss Bess Aldrich, who has been assigned to Columbus Avenue.

GOPHERS PICNIC

All who ever lived in Minnesota are called to meet for a great picnic reunion, all day, Saturday, September 24th, 1921, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Come as early as you can and spend the day with friends. We will have county registers and headquarters, so you can find the old neighbors even with ten thousand present. If rainy on this date it will be postponed to Saturday, October 15th. There will be a brief program, opening about two o'clock, but the main purpose will be to have a good time. We want to see all the Minnesotans from all sections of Southern California. Bring your baskets well filled and share with friends. Coffee will be served free to all who buy the silk souvenir badges. Each one who learns of this picnic is asked to pass the word along.

Further information may be had of

C. H. Parsons, secretary of the Federation of State Societies, Continental National Bank, Main street at 9th, Los Angeles, phone 10261, where our great Minnesota register may be seen at any time.

By PAUL VISSMAN

Building permits issued up to noon today totalled $10,500. This list is composed of five residences to be erected as homes for the owners. This brings the total for the month of September up to $196,250, and the total for the year to $3,091,719.

In the decade ended with 1920, Glendale gained almost 440% in population. This gain was made during the same period that Los Angeles showed an increase of nearly 100%, and the entire United States increased its population by 20%. This growth to the average tourist and visitor from the east seems almost too marvelous to be true, more like a fairy tale than an actuality, but it is nevertheless true and is proven by the records of the United States census bureau.

Glendale, through its wonderful growth of the past decade has attracted the attention of the entire nation, and has been acclaimed "The Fastest Growing City in the United States." This growth is based on a solid foundation, that will not crumble away in the future and leave the city at a standstill. Rather it will continue until in a very few years the population of Glendale will reach the 50,000 mark.

The growth of Glendale is based on its climate. No place in the world boasts of a more desirable climate than Southern California and in all Southern California there is no spot that can excel Glendale. Situated as it is just far enough from the ocean to escape the dampness that prevails along the water front, and nestled at the base of the foothills, Glendale is practically free of fogs, and the disagreeable ocean winds.

There are sixty-one miles of broad well paved streets in the city, and a comprehensive system of tree planting gives them shady borders of living green.

The city water supply is owned and operated by the city as is the electric lighting system. The municipal water and lighting system are officially valued at more than $600,000; notable extensions to the service in both systems are being made. This assures the people of Glendale ample water and power for generations to come.

At the close of the year 1920, there were 5300 electric light connections in the city, 4800 water connections and 5200 gas. The income of the water and light departments takes care of the bonds issued for their erecting and extension.

Glendale is governed by the city manager form of administration and the tax rate for municipal government of 1% is less than in most California communities of her class.

Taxation in Glendale is based on 30 to 40 per cent valuation and covering as it does all purposes, including state and county, municipal and schools is only $4.26 on the $100 of valuation. The assessed valuation for the present fiscal year is more than $13,000,000.

While Glendale is a municipality of its own it is only seven miles distant from Los Angeles, and so connected by five boulevards. In addition to these boulevards there are 60 Pacific Electric trains daily operating between the cities.

There are six banks in Glendale, with combined resources of $58,300, 210.60 and combined deposits of $51,334,259.91. In addition to this there are 21 industrial manufacturing plants manufacturing different products.

These are a few of the reasons on which Glendale real estate men and property owners base their judgement that Glendale will continue to grow until it attains, within a very few years, a population of 50,000.

STAY OF EXECUTION

Just when everyone was feeling sorry for poor Jack, the arrested dog, some kind friend came to the rescue and offered him a home.

A very pleasant voice called a representative of the Glendale Daily Press yesterday and asked where Jack could be found, as the police department seemed to know nothing about him. But it happens that a member of that organization opened his heart to poor Jack and took him home with him. So you see, Jack was much better off than he thought he was, and therefore, it will not be necessary for him to go to the pound. He will not be executed. P. S.—It pays to advertise in the Glendale Press. "I'll say so," says Jack. "Even a dog knows that."

LEAVES FOR WATER, RETURNS AFTER MANY MONTHS

(By International News Service)

DENVER, Sept. 14.—Henry Turner, fifty-five, has recovered his memory here after suffering from what is believed to be the strangest case of amnesia ever brought to the attention of local physicians.

Turner, while working at the home of Dr. Lillian Pollack, prominent Denver physician, on December 6, 1920, laid down his tools to secure a drink of water and disappeared. On August 16, more than eight months later he returned to Dr. Pollack's residence, ready to resume the day's work that he had begun the previous December. The few minutes supposed by Turner to have lapsed had extended into months, and he was unable to explain his absence.

"At 7:45 o'clock on the morning of December 6, 1920," Dr. Pollack declares, "Turner came to my house to perform a number of 'odd jobs,' bringing his kit of tools with him. Kitchen wall, he said he was going for 'Setting the tools against the a drink of water and would return in a few minutes."

"Promptly at 8 o'clock on the morning of August 16 Turner came to my kitchen door and said he would start on his task and looked quite surprised and hurt when I told him he had been gone almost a year."

Was Hit by Auto

"When Turner finished some work which I had for him he said to me, in a puzzled tone, 'I have been away a long time, haven't I? It's all becoming clear to me now. I remember I left your house and said I would be back in fifteen minutes. The next thing I recalled I was in a hospital, and the nurse told me it was Syracuse, N. Y. How I got there I don't know, and how I got back to Denver I don't know, except that some kind people said they would take me west if I would help them with their luggage.'"

Caused by Worry

During Turner's absence Dr. Pollack instituted a search for him and learned that he was missing from his rooming house, but could find no trace of his whereabouts.

It is believed that worry over numerous misfortunes during his life was the cause of Turner's temporarily losing his memory. He was born in Oberlin, Ohio, and after being orphan-

Through a legacy from Allison Wright, a wealthy Stillwater, Mich., resident, Turner acquired a farm in the State of Washington, where he lived for some years. A fire that destroyed his property and resulted in the death of his wife and two sons left the man penniless about fifteen years ago, and he has been eking out a precarious existence since that time by performing light work around gardens and homes.

"I have suffered greatly during the past few months," he told inquirers here today. "I have a vague recollection of being struck and knocked down by an automobile when I left Dr. Pollack's house last winter, and after that I knew nothing for a long time."

POLICE QUESTION CORPSE

(By International News Service)

AKRON, O., Sept. 14.—When police were called to the home of Peter Bakoney by a report of a suicide, they mistook the victim for one of the bystanders, and one of the officers asked him a question. When no answer was received the officer stretched out his hand and touched the body lightly on the arm. It swayed.

Police found that Bakoney had fastened a cord about his neck, threw the other end over the grape-arbor frame and leaped from a seven-inch box. The weight of the body dangled, there being a bare half inch from the ground.

Chief Rewards "Cops" To Cut Crime Wave

(By International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Charles C. Fitzmorris, Chicago police chief, who has been in New York studying its police communicative system with the idea in view of further improving Chicago's system, has returned to his post to further decrease crime—although he has a record of changing Chicago in two years from "the leading city in crime" to "the city with the lowest crime record in the United States."

HOW CRIME WAVES

CAN BE LESSENED

1.—Meritorious service by policemen should elevate them in the ranks.
2.—Reward your worthy policemen and punish those who do not do their duty.
3.—Teach policemen to prevent crime rather than trace it down after it has been committed.

Fitzmorris, who little more than two years ago was merely a secretary to the Mayor of Chicago and who just a bit later than that was a newspaper reporter, today is given credit in a report made by the Chicago Crime Commission for having made the following statement possible for publication:

"Chicago today has a lower crime record than any other city in the country. Two years ago this city had a crime wave that was greater than that in any other city in the United States."

That is substantially a quotation from the report made by Edwin W. Sims, president of the Crime Commission. And Sims, by the way, is a banker—not connected with the police department in any way—while every member of the Crime Commission is a banker of note; men who are supposed to know the effects of crime.

Didn't Come From Ranks
Fitzmorris didn't come from the "ranks," but today he is encouraging a system of "reward for meritorious police service by promotion," believing that the man interested in his work is the man who will get the best results. Fitzmorris learned several things as a police reporter and in his association with the department in connection with his work as secretary to Mayor Thompson, of Chicago. And here is one of the things he learned:

"Citizens look upon a fireman as a man who saves citizens from the flames and who saves citizens' homes, while the same citizens look upon a policeman as a man who arrests them—nothing more."

This is the cue that started Fitzmorris on the road to police success—success, because crime is greatly on the decrease in Chicago. He started out by teaching his policemen to help citizens in every way possible; to teach these citizens that the policeman was not merely on hand "to arrest them," but to help them.

Merit System Installed

To get a policeman to adopt this attitude, Fitzmorris installed a plan of promotion—that a man was placed automatically in line for promotion when he did service of merit. To prevent obstinate policemen, who refused to cooperate in the new movement, from hindering the movement by following the old system, Fitzmorris made it automatically punishable for a policeman who neglected his duty. Forty-seven railroads center in Chicago, which has a population of more than 3,000,000 persons, in addition to a "floating tramp influx" of 750 a day. This is the same "population" that Chicago had three years ago, when the crime wave was at its height.

"We reward our policemen whenever their acts are meritorious and punish them when they fail to do their duty," Fitzmorris said. "We made it mandatory that when a policeman performed an act of merit he was automatically elevated in rank; we teach them to prevent crime rather than to trace it down after it is committed."

ANCIENT RACE TRACED TO STATUE OF APE

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 14.—Did man exist on the North American continent in the palaeolithic age?

This question, which has baffled scientists for years, may be answered with the finding of the statue, hewn from granite, of an ape, holding an infant of the species to its breast, at Selma Park, north of Victoria.

This discovery may mean the solution of many theories advanced by scientists as to the probability of man migrating to the North American continent long before Babylonia was populated.

Many students have argued that man, in the late stages of evolution, came from Asia to the coasts of Canada and the United States, where the groups were gradually broken up and exterminated.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS MEET

The good attendance at the regular meeting of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, last evening in Odd Fellows' Hall, was a marked indication of the great interest being taken in the work to be accomplished. After the usual routine of business, including balloting on new candidates, it was decided to conduct a food sale on Saturday, September 24. The place will be announced later.

On the afternoon of September 25 the members of the Tent, with the Sons of Veterans, their families and friends, will participate in a 2 o'clock picnic dinner at Brooksde Park, Pasadena.

The Nimble Fingers Club will resume activities on Wednesday evening, September 21, at the home of Mrs. Hattie Tiffany, 129 West Los Feliz road.

A Holiday for Two

By HAZEL SMITH

(© 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

With a clang a great gate went shut, and a shrill whistle and the harsh boom of a bell told that the giant factory had begun the noisy grind of the business of the day. The inflexible rule of the plant was applied on the stroke of seven need not apply for admission until the next morning.

A pretty, neatly appareled girl reached the gate to grasp its handle just as the lock shut; a young man, hurrying too, halted with a shrug of his shoulders—one half dismayed one.

While Sidney Harper, stock clerk, took the forced idleness of a day rather indifferently, in fact with rather a sense of enjoyable novelty, Muriel Hope, employed in the office of the big works, paled and her lips quivered.

Sidney Harper construed the girl's deep concern, and his sympathy was awakened.

"Heigh-ho!" he communed with himself. "In four years of steady, persistent work at last a day off."

He had noticed off and on for a year or more the fair young girl who answered to the name of Muriel Hope. Once he had adjusted a gas jet above her desk when she had some extra night work.

His thoughts came irresistibly back to the girl as he saw her shift the lunch box she carried and move her handkerchief to her eyes, as if to wipe the tears away. And then—just as she was crossing a street he saw her step directly in the path of an on-rushing automobile. He made a spring, just at the critical moment he seized and drew her out of the way of a dreadful peril, and led her back to the street curb half fainting with terror.

"Oh—how can I thank you!" she panted.

He took her hand and drew it through his arm in a kindly brotherly way she could not resist.

"We will walk on slowly then," he said quietly. "I will see you safely as far as your home."

"I dare not—that is, I cannot go home just now," she faltered.

"I do not understand," insinuated Sidney gently.

"It is my dear mother," explained Muriel pathetically. "She is an invalid, nervous and apprehensive. My father, when he died, left nothing but a house on leased ground. The owner has raised the rent, and it is all we can do to meet his exactions. Every day's wages counts. I must not go home until night, and I must keep the truth from mother."

A plain story, but infinitely pathetic, it made Sidney Harper think. Then in a half-humorous, half-serious tone he said:

"Miss Hope, this is our day of coincidences. We miss work together, you have a house, I own a lot. We are like dull children given a holiday and not knowing how to enjoy it. Won't you help me find a way?"

She entered into the spirit of the proposition smilingly.

"I am amused to holidays as yourself," she admitted.

Never would Muriel forget the rare wonder and novelty of the pleasure park, where her courteous escort made her see everything worth seeing, where they had a delightful lunch in a water pagoda to the strains of sweet music, and then a long row on the dreamy lagoon.

Muriel with a bright laugh emptied out the tell-tale lunch she had brought from home, her beautiful eyes suffused as she spoke softly of "deceiving poor mother!" There was the lovely flush of excitement and joy in her cheeks as they neared her home.

"Miss Hope," said Sidney, "you have given me the most delightful day of my life. You live here!" he exclaimed abruptly.

"Why, yes," responded Muriel, wondering at his startled manner.

Sidney Harper smiled strangely.

"You own the house," he said, "and next to it is the lot I told you about. Another coincidence, is it not?"

Their eyes met and their souls thrilled, and in the mutual glance was the serene promise of a closer friendship.

Bird Incubator.

The first and original incubator seems to have been the clever invention of an Australian bird of large size called the "brush turkey." It saves the fowl a great deal of time and trouble. The hen turkey lays her "clutch" of eggs in a neat circle, and then she and her mate scratch together a big pile of leaves and other forest trash to cover them. Decomposition of this vegetable material produces heat, whereby the eggs are kept at proper temperature for incubation. From time to time the male bird gives the heap a scratching over, as if to make sure that the temperature developed is neither too high nor too low. He does not permit the newly hatched young ones to emerge, however, until they are fully fledged and able to take care of themselves. Then he helps them to get out.

Getting On.

"How are you getting on with your new production?"

"We're all through with the most important part," replied the musical manager, "we have found a title that suggests all sorts of shocking possibilities."

Uncle Walt's Story

Walt Mason

THE KIND WORD

"I READ such a beautiful article in the Uplift Magazine today," explained the landlady. "It said that the kind word is the greatest civilizing influence in the world."

"I have often thought," said the star boarder, "that the value of the kind word is greatly exaggerated by our gifted sunshine writers and orators. When properly used, at the right time and place, it is an excellent thing, but you must admit, my dear Mrs. Jiggers, that it doesn't always bring results."

Only this morning I heard you saying that the housework never would be done if you didn't keep after the hired girl all the time, and I assume that you don't keep after her with kind words. In fact, I have heard you say to that languorous dandy that she isn't worth the coal oil it would take to blow her through the roof.

"I am partial to kind words, and use them whenever the signs seem right, but they don't always work out as they should. On my way home this evening, I stopped to witness a dog fight which was in progress in the middle of the street. A great crowd had assembled, and the street was jammed. All the beauty and chivalry, fair women and brave men, were there. It is rather remarkable, when you come to think of it, that a dog fight has a great fascination for our leading citizens. They wouldn't go ten feet out of their way to listen to a college glee club, or hear an elevating lecture on the regeneration of the race, but they'll sprint ten blocks at the risk of apoplexy or heart failure to see a couple of misguided bowwows chew each other up."

"Mr. Junkman, the banker, was at my left hand in the crowd this evening. Everybody knows how polite and suave he is at ordinary times, but he was greatly incensed because he couldn't get a good look at the wrangling pups. A man with a tall hat stood right in front of him, and shut off the view, and Mr. Junkman knocked his hat down over his ears, without a word of apology or explanation. Why is a dog fight thus ruinous to our veneer of civilization?"

"A large man with a truculent face, was right in front of me, and I tapped him gently on the shoulder, and informed him in the most courteous terms, that he was standing on my foot and doing great injury to my favorite corn. Nobody could have broken the news to him more gently than I did. If kind words were what they are cracked up to be, the large man would have apologized and moved off. But he glowered at me in the manner of one who is willing to meet grief half way, and proceeded to argue the question. He said he wasn't standing on my foot, that I was laboring under a hallucination, and if, by any mischance, he was standing on my foot, it was because that foot was so large he couldn't do otherwise. And in any event, he finally inquired, what was I going to do about it?"

"I didn't see that I could do anything while the man was as large as an ordinary cottage, and he seemed impatient for trouble. I was just explaining to him that I rather enjoyed having people stand on my feet, when the crowd shuffled around, and he was pushed to one side. In his new position, he was in front of another citizen as large and dangerous looking as himself, and presently this second citizen took him by the ear, and twisted his head around, and said, 'Say, you big loafer, get off my foot!'"

"The truculent gentleman hadn't a word of argument on this occasion. He squirmed away, and the second citizen gave him a prod in the small of the back that made him groan, and he didn't indulge in so much as a reproachful look."

"Thus we see, Mrs. Jiggers, that kind words don't always bring home the bacon, and so I'll trouble you for the stewed apricots."

A Watch Can Do It.

Bacon—I see a Mrs. Rosa Abbey of Bingham, Me., has recovered a watch that was stolen from her four years ago while she was on her way to California.

Egbert—The police ran the watch down, I suppose?

"Oh, no; it ran down itself."

If Not, Why Not?

"When the days begin to lengthen the cold begins to strengthen," quoted mother. The small philosopher of the family mused. He had evidently struck a new problem to be solved. "Mamma," he asked, "when the days begin to shorten, does the heat begin to hotten?"

Economics.

Knicker—"What is the advantage of a budget?" Bocker—"Being forewarned, you can arrange to borrow early."

There is no word for strawberry in classical Greek, that fruit being practically unknown to them.

Opera performed in Berlin and transmitted by wireless telephone was distinctly heard 800 miles away.

WIG-WAG SIGNAL IS NOW INSTALLED AT LOS FELIZ

The Pacific Electric Railway company has just installed a wig-wag danger signal with a bell at the corner of Los Feliz road and Brand boulevard. The intention of the company is to prevent a repetition of the accident that occurred at that corner several weeks ago. This wig-wag is electrically operated and ought to be sufficient to warn all motorists approaching this intersection from all directions.

Now that the Pacific Electric company has done its part with regard to making this crossing safe it is up to the motorists in general to exercise due care in approaching this, and in fact, every other street intersection.

Tropico Personals

Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert of 434 Fernando court are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, born on Monday. They have named the little miss Margery Marie. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Harry Tisdale of 336 West Acacia avenue returned last evening from a month's business trip to Gallup, N. M. Mr. Tisdale is a trainmaster for the Santa Fe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peddicord and daughter, Jeanne, of Coronado, are guests at the E. C. Hurlbert home, 348 West Park avenue. They expect to leave for their home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue are visiting in Portland, Ore. They purchased a new car there and it is expected that they will drive back in it, starting within a week or so.

Miss Regina Bacon of 1335 South San Fernando road left Sunday for Santa Ana, where she will teach this year. Miss Bacon is assistant psychologist in the Santa Ana schools.

OK STREETERS RALLY

The Oak Street Improvement Association is on the job.

The City Council having set apart this evening for a conference with owners of property abutting on that street, the association has notified its members through Mrs. J. F. Tatlow, secretary-treasurer, to be at the city hall tonight, even if it entails some sacrifice, as the need for improvement in paving and water service is urgent and it is felt that some policy which can be put into action should be worked out.

STRAW AS AN ORCHARD HUMUS-MAKER

Where cover crops cannot be grown for plowing under while green, the practice of spreading straw, especially bean straw, over the surface of the ground, and plowing it under is to be recommended.

Organic matter in the soil, however it may be secured, is a necessity, and in our arid sections, where orcharding is one of the big industries, there always is a scarcity of humus, the product of plant decay.

Heavy soils which cement badly, lose moisture quickly and refuse to take moisture readily when irrigation water is applied, also are greatly improved by the plowing under of bean straw in the early spring before the rainy season ceases.—Geo. P. Weldon, in Orchard and Farm.

POULTRY HOUSE

The two-story poultry house seems to be the next logical development. Heretofore poultry has been raised principally in one-story buildings, and, in fact, until a few years ago, a yard also was considered necessary.

For the past decade, however, even the active Leghorns and Anconas have been reared successfully in floored houses without yards. One man near Inglewood, a suburb of Los Angeles, has brooded chicks, placed pullets in the laying houses and built up his flock—even to fattening the culls for market—all without the fowls having touched foot upon the earth.

For eight years he has bred and improved his strain and increased the egg yield, proving that no yard is necessary when intensive methods must be followed on high-priced land. The two or even three-story poultry house makes possible profitable operations upon the most expensive land—even city lots.

If plenty of sand is kept in the dust boxes and the fowls are given a sufficiency of grit and oyster shell, there is no reason why hens should not do as well in confinement as on open range.—V. O. Hanson, in Orchard and Farm.

THE KRAZY KAFETERIA

"Give me a combination salad without any dressing."

"Yes, sir. What kind of dressing do you want it without?"

"Without mayonnaise."

"Sorry, sir. We haven't any mayonnaise. You'll have to have it without French dressing."—Orchard and Farm.

South Glendale (Tropico) News Notes

COMBINED BOOSTERS OF SO. GLENDALE TO MEET

The combined improvement association in the southern part of the city, which has adopted the name of The South Glendale Improvement Club, being a consolidation of the various improvement associations which have been in existence in that section during the past few months, will hold its first meeting in the hall over the public library, corner of Los Feliz road and Brand boulevard, tomorrow evening.

The combining of all the improvement forces in the southern section of the city makes this organization stronger than any that have existed in South Glendale to date. The people of the section have at last seen the wisdom of getting together in one grand effort to boost that locality and to do everything possible for the advancement of the district.

The meeting tomorrow night will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and for a couple of hours there will be something doing every minute. A large attendance of the residents of the section is urgently requested, as a number of important subjects, of interest to all South Glendale residents, are to come up for discussion.

Things are "looking up" for the South Glendale section and, with this live improvement association in the field, that territory should experience a wonderful growth during the weeks and months to come.

BUSINESS ZONE ON VALLEY ROAD HAS NEW MERCHANT

George M. Stull is a new business man in the San Fernando road section. He is opening a second-hand goods establishment at 1420 South San Fernando road. The stock is being moved into the store at this time, but the formal opening of the establishment will not take place until the latter part of the week.

Practically all the store rooms in this South Glendale district are occupied, which shows that things are picking up in the locality. There is now, it is understood, a waiting list for business houses in that section.

NEED OF HOTEL IS SHOWN BY EMERY

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery and family, who have just returned from a 2000-mile auto trip to Shasta Springs and back, say they feel fresh mortification over the fact that Glendale has no hotel. They had occasion to spend five nights in hotels on the way, and even in towns of only 5000 inhabitants found "elegant" hotel accommodations. In every other respect they find Glendale quite ideal, in comparison with other towns they inspected on this trip, and it looked very lovely to them when they again ran the car into their own garage. They visited Mrs. Emery's brother J. C. Ferguson and family at Dunsmuir, and also stopped to see the H. C. Smiths at Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Latter, at Oakland.

SCHRAM BUYS LOT ON VALLEY ROAD

George E. Schram, the active real estate agent of the San Fernando road business section, has purchased a business lot on San Fernando road just north of Los Feliz road. This lot is 50 by 160 feet in size and the price paid is reported to be about $3800. This lot has for years been known as the Bercau property.

GULICK IS BUILDING SUBSTANTIAL HOME

C. D. Gulick, a recent arrival in Glendale, is constructing an eight-room stucco residence at the corner of Magnolia and Central. This home will cost about $6000, and when it is completed it will be occupied by the owner. Mr. Huber is overseeing the construction of the residence.

THE BRENKMAN'S ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Gillette and daughters, Misses Marjorie and Ruth, of Detroit, Mich., have arrived in Glendale and will enjoy a visit of several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brenkman of South San Fernando road. The visitors are delighted with this sunny and rapidly-growing city, and the chances are that when they do return to their eastern home it will be only to make arrangements and "pack up" with an intention of coming back to Glendale to reside.

NEELS LEAVE GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Neel, who for the past two years have been located at 1337 South San Fernando road, will leave Sunday morning for Santa Ana, where they intend to make their home in the future. They have grown very fond of Glendale during their stay here and it is their hope that some day they may return to this place to live.

MRS. KIRKHAM LEAVES

Mrs. Madeline Kirkham and children, of Marion, who have been enjoying a visit of several days with Mrs. Kirkham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Malcom of West Palmer avenue, have returned to their home. Mrs. Kirkham is an old-time resident of Tropico and is well-known to the residents of that section.

BRENKMAN HAS TOYS

In addition to his especially well selected line of electrical goods, C. L. Brenkman has installed in his electrical store on South San Fernando road, a complete line of toys, many of which are electrically operated. He is doing this in anticipation of the holiday season, which will soon be here.

THE MISSES MURPHY RETURN

Misses Ethel, Lois, Helen and Mildred Murphy, who for several months have been at the Methodist camp meeting in the Santa Monica Canyon, returned to their home, 421 North Brand boulevard, yesterday afternoon.

Valley Road District Becomes White Way

The San Fernando road business section is brighter this week than it has been for months. There are two reasons for this result. In the first place, the merchants of the section are using high candle-power electric lamps in the display of their merchandise at night. This fact alone makes it look as though someone really lives in the locality. It now looks like a live, up-to-date business district.

The other reason is that employees of the city have been tampering with the electrolier system of that locality. A number of globes on the lighting standards which were broken in one way or another have been replaced and all the globes have been dusted off and put in such a condition as will permit the light from the lamp to actually shine through.

The residents and business men of that section were about to put in effect a grand clean-up or dusting day, the idea being to dust off the globes of the electroliers, which, it is claimed, had received no attention for months, when the city got busy.

METHODIST LADIES GIVE EXPERIENCE SOCIAL PARTY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Avenue Methodist Church gave an experience social in the hall of the church last night. Each lady in the organization was requested to earn a dollar to be used in connection with the society's pledge toward clearing off the debt on the church, and at the social last night, each lady was required to give an account of how the dollar was earned. Numerous amusing experiences were told, and the affair proved to be enjoyable in the extreme.

After the program of the evening, ice cream and cake were served.

PLAN SALES TABLE ORGANIZATION AT VALLEY FAIR

Organization for work in connection with the sales table for which the Tuesday Afternoon Club has secured a concession at the San Fernando Valley Fair was perfected at a meeting held by members of the Literary and Shakespeare Sections at the home of Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, yesterday afternoon.

A different committee consisting of six members drawn from the two sections will have charge of the concession each day of the fair and every day either Mrs. Montgomery, who is curator of the Shakespeare section, or Mrs. Hollingsworth, curator of the Literary section, will be present to aid and direct.

The committees were advised that arrangements had been made for autos to take them from the Glendale Chamber of Commerce to the fair grounds every morning at 9 o'clock.

Members to Donate
Besides the food exhibits to be turned over to the sales table after they have been judged, the concession will be supplied from day to day by donations from club members who have been solicited in a general canvass for the things the table will offer, viz.: sandwiches, coffee, hot and iced tea, home-made cake, pies, doughnuts and cookies.

Mrs. Montgomery says that her committee still has need and if any club member has been overlooked in the canvass she would be glad to have her telephone Glendale 2126-W.

Parcel Checks
Besides the food which will be sold as lunches, there will be a steady sale of parcel checks against articles which have been donated to the committee by Glendale merchants. One such article is a beautiful hat which has been contributed by Mrs. Grace Yarbrough, the milliner, another is a fancy basket given by H. S. Webb. The Hatz Shop has bestowed a handsome fur throw.

The different organizations that obtained concessions secured them by drawing lots and the one which fell to the Tuesday Afternoon Club is not as good in location as some of the others, but has the advantage of being larger than the majority, covering a space 20x12 feet. A charming scheme of decoration has been planned and will be put into execution Saturday, preparatory to the opening of the fair Monday morning.

FAIR COMMITTEES ARE MEETING TODAY

Members of Glendale committees appointed to secure exhibits for the women's section of the San Fernando Valley Fair, which opens next Monday at San Fernando, will go to that city this afternoon to attend a general meeting of chairmen, to be held on the fair grounds at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ella Richardson, general chairman; Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, culinary chairman; Miss Eva Daniels, chairman of needlework; Mrs. S. V.

Phillips, assistant chairman of art; Mrs. C. W. Houston, chairman of plants and flowers, and others are expected to be there to represent the Glendale exhibitors.

Mrs. Houston reports considerable difficulty in lining up exhibits for her department. The owners of rare potted plants decline to send them, fearing damage that will more than offset the value of a prize if awarded. Her exhibits are, therefore, confined for the most part to cut flowers, largely zinnias and dahlias. Entries will remain open until Monday morning, but they must be in the hands of Mrs. Houston by 9 a. m., as she has undertaken to deliver them to the fair grounds, where they will be judged some time Monday. Persons desiring information in addition to that already published can telephone Mrs. Houston.

RIVERDALE DRIVE LUNCHEON

Riverdale drive is a very neighborly section of the city. Once a month the housewives on that thoroughfare, or just close by, come together for a community cafeteria lunch and social good time over their needlework. Mrs. William Farlander will be the hostess tomorrow and will entertain twelve to fifteen ladies.

BERLIN EXCHANGE PANIC

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Violent fluctuations in security prices, due to the unprecedented depreciation of the German mark abroad, caused the directors of the bourse to close it today. It will reopen tomorrow.

We Now Sell the Hudson Super-Six and Essex

Hudson Supreme in Beauty, Performance, Endurance. Essex, Lighter and Smaller, Dominant in Its Type

In making this announcement that we now sell Hudson and Essex we realize a long-standing ambition.

You, as well as we, have long recognized the unquestioned superiority of these cars. You know how Hudson Super-Six has proved its leadership in speed, power, beauty and endurance. You know how Essex, smaller and lighter than Hudson, has established its supremacy over every car of its weight, size and price—and over many much larger, more expensive cars.

You know that the same men designed both Hudson and Essex, and that they are built in the same factory. The same careful construction goes into both cars. Each is a masterpiece of the designer's art and mechanical perfection.

The Super-Six Motor Exclusive in Hudson

Everyone knows how Hudson, with its exclusive Super-Six motor, set the world's worth-while stock car records for speed, power and endurance.

The Super-Six motor gives every Hudson 72 per cent more power with no added weight. And it decreases vibration so that automobile life is increased far beyond its previously known limits.

This endurance, more than its power and speed, makes Hudson the world's largest selling fine car. To you it means dependable, every-day transportation and high sale value after long, hard service.

Remember, also, that Hudson is leader in beauty and style. For years it has been the pattern car of motordom. Types it created are now standard with all fine cars. And today, as always, it is foremost in design and development of comforts and refinements.

Essex Has Proved Supreme Endurance

Essex has demonstrated power, speed and endurance never before expected of a car of its weight.

A stock chassis set the world's official 50-hour endurance mark of 3,037 miles on the Cincinnati Speedway. In 94 hours 22 minutes driving time it went 5,869 miles, averaging over a mile a minute, yet showed no wear.

This dependability ranks Essex with far costlier cars. So does its beauty. Its design, fittings and finishing command instant attention.

Add to these fine car qualities the fact that Essex excels other light cars in easy driving, nimbleness and acceleration, and you have an idea of its merits. To appreciate them fully you must drive this car.

And in price and saving of gasoline, oil and tires it fully meets your ideas of motor economy.

We have long wanted the Hudson-Essex franchise, but it was not easy to get. That we now have it fulfills our ambition to deal in the finest, most satisfying cars made. And our selection is a great company's recognition of our high sense of responsibility, its appreciation of our ability to serve you.

Come see the Hudson Super-Six and the dominant Essex in our store today.
